ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANT'S ORAL MOTION
TO CONTINUE TRIAL AND EXCLUDING TIME

On January 19, 2006, defendants appeared for arraignment and plea to the superseding indictment returned on January 12, 2006. Trial had already been scheduled for January 24, 2006. The defendant, Antonio Panlasigui, Jr., aka "Tony," through counsel, orally moved to exercise his right under Title 18, United States Code, Section 3161(c)(2) to continue the trial thirty days.

Assistant United States Attorney Thomas Muehleck appeared for the United States. Counsel for defendant Dawn R. Galarita joined in the request for continuance. Counsel for defendant Smith did object to the continuance. William Harrison made a special appearance on behalf of defendant Fernandez and advised that the defendant was negotiating a plea agreement.

The Court, upon consideration of the arguments of counsel, and in order to ensure continuity of counsel for the United States and to preserve defendant Panlasigui's right to continue trial for 30 days, continues trial from January 24, 2006 to March 7, 2006.

The Court finds that the ends of justice served by granting defendant Panlasigui's request to continue outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial and that failure to grant a continuance would deny the United States continuity of counsel and defendant Panlasigui adequate time to prepare. Therefore, the time from January 24, 2006 to and including March 7, 2006, is excluded from computation under the Speedy Trial Act. A final pretrial conference will be held before Magistrate Kevin S.C. Chang at 10:00 a.m.,

February 6, 2006.

DATED AT HONOLULU, HAWAI'I, January 27, 2006.
